

MNC Network

MNC Network. A New Beginning.

More than a new name, it's a new beginning. The North Carolina Manufacturing Extension Partnership \(NCMEP\) announces a new program, MNC Network. MNC Network replaces what was formerly known as mfgNC Connections and promises to be greater than ever.

Companies currently enrolled in the Manufactured in North Carolina (MNC) directory can take advantage of this new network, the premier networking and educational organization for manufacturing professionals. Membership is complimentary.

The MNC Network is designed to bring North Carolina's manufacturers together for the sharing of ideas and best practices through educational and networking opportunities.

Take advantage of these benefits by joining today:

- › Free listing in the Manufactured in MNC database.
- › Discounted admission to attend the annual mfgCON conference, held in the fall of each year
- › Access to dedicated LinkedIn Group to share best practices
- › Receive Manufacturing Update e-newsletter to stay up to date on trends and events as well as the MNC e-newsletter which contain items of interest to NC Manufacturers
- › Access to NCMEP Partner resources
- › Attend MNC Network special events at a low cost. The MNC Network offers two programs to help you learn and share information on topics important to manufacturing. MNC members have the first opportunity to sign up for these events.

Membership offers manufacturers a competitive advantage through a series of unique opportunities to:

- › Promote and grow North Carolina manufacturing
- › Share and learn operation best practices
- › Connect and network with peers
- › Localize supply chains
